Barcelona

European Association of Science Editors

Announces the Seminar

Scientific Publications in a Digital Age

Barcelona, 7 May 2004

do the media justify changes?
or
do changes provoke a new paradigm?

Professionals involved in different areas of the publishing world will offer their views about the new era in which almost anything can be converted into info bytes. Teachers, publishers, editors, librarians and freelancers will take part in this seminar.

The seminar will be run before the Annual General Assembly of EASE.
